

YOUNG ENTREPRENEURS IN SCIENCE

WORKSHOPS IN DRESDEN FOR DOCTORAL STUDENTS

You have almost completed your doctoral studies, but are not sure about your next step? You are already thinking about your post-PhD career, but lack inspiration or a marketable business idea? You would like to know how to turn your idea into reality and develop entrepreneurial skills?

Sign up for our workshop to develop your own potential and expand your qualifications. Our four-day interactive workshop series will teach you more about yourself and the opportunities you have. With the help of practice-oriented methods and tools, e.g. design thinking and other creative techniques, you will learn how to translate your strengths and creativity into concrete ideas.
