

Join the International Center of Medieval Art (ICMA) and connect to a global community of medieval art historians

50% off annual membership, for first-time, non-North American members.
Use discount code ICMA2020 – good until August 31, 2020.

Visit: <https://www.medievalart.org>

The International Center of Medieval Art (ICMA) is an organization open to anyone with an interest in the study of medieval art. Today, the ICMA counts over 650 members from all over the world. A membership offers the possibility of connecting with fellow medievalists in the US and overseas and staying informed on recent developments in the field. We are delighted to offer a special membership discount to first-time non-North American members.

Member Benefits:

- Receive Gesta, the premier scholarly journal for medieval art history, online and in print.
- Receive the newsletter ICMA News, published three times a year.
- Participate in in-person and virtual events: Study Days, mentoring sessions, and more.
- Enjoy eligibility for ICMA research, publication, and exhibition grants, with special opportunities for students.
- For further benefits see: <https://www.medievalart.org/join>; sign-up with the discount code: ICMA2020

Image credits: Getty MS 33, fol. 66v; Getty MS Ludwig II 6 (83.MB.70), fol. 13v; Amiens Cathedral, west, central portal; The Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1998.246; Uvdal stave church